The New York Times reported it on Page A22, but at least the deaths of five whites in the car attack on the Waukesha WI Christmas Parade got some national coverage.

The 32 whites whose killings by blacks were reported in October got nothing, as usual. Besides the continuing toll of white women killed by black husbands/ lovers/ ex-lovers, I note at least five home invasions. This may be a new trend, as black criminals get increasingly confident they won't be resisted or punished.
